Using ced, the cLAS eVENT dISPLAY

Based on ced version 1.04

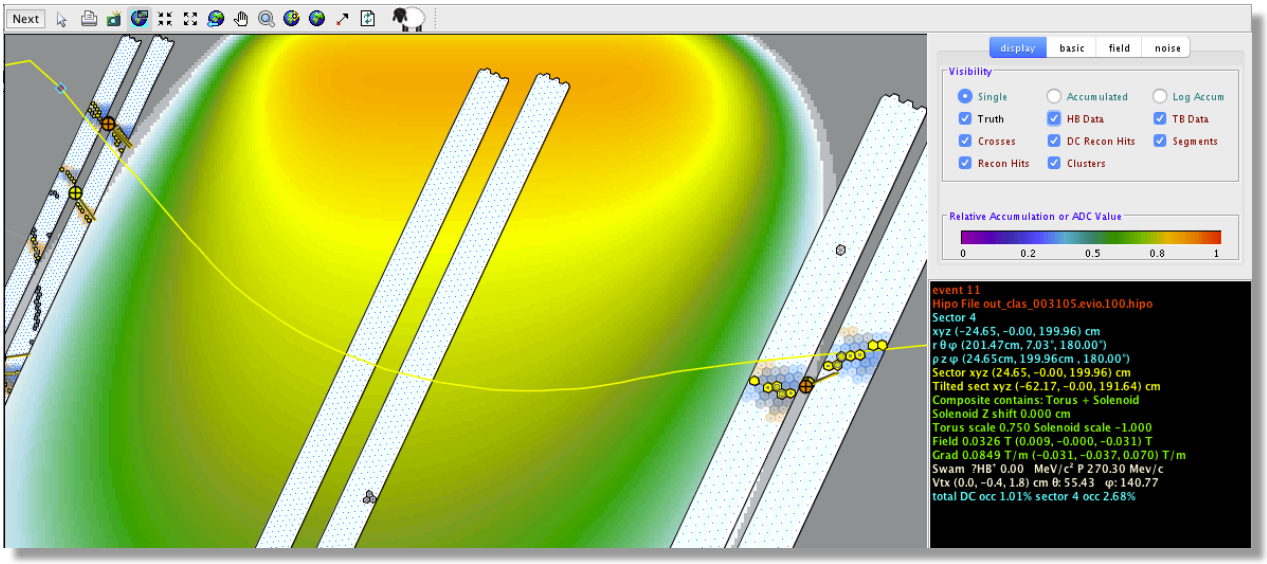
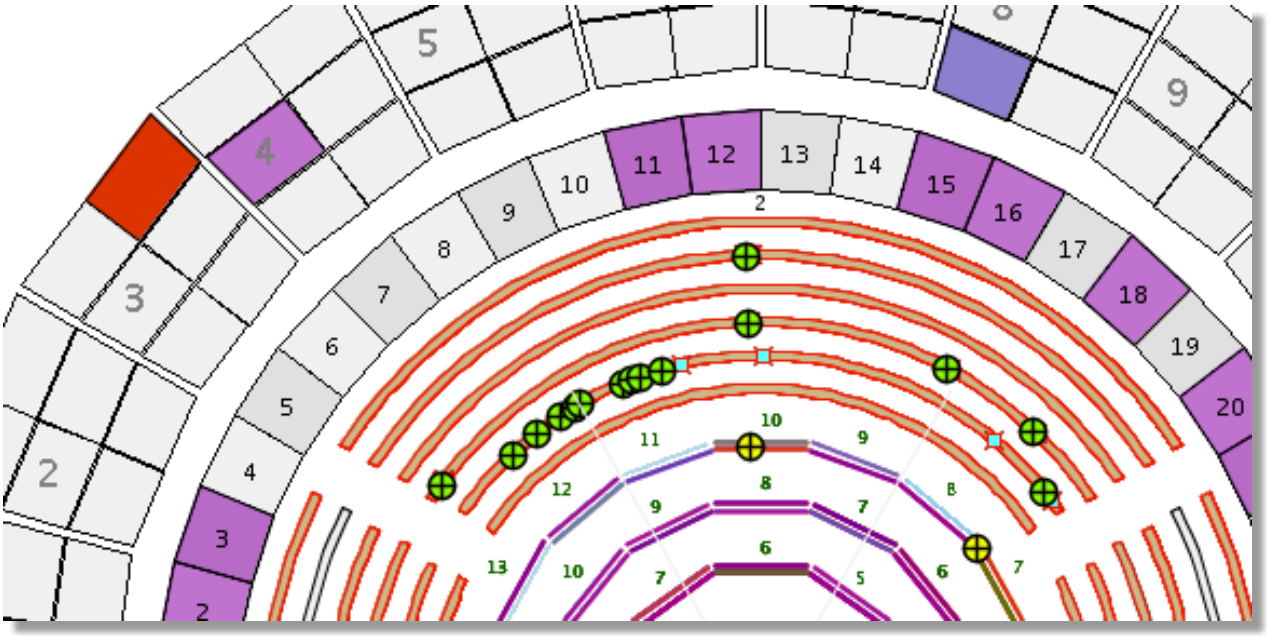
May 5, 2018

David Heddle
Christopher Newport University





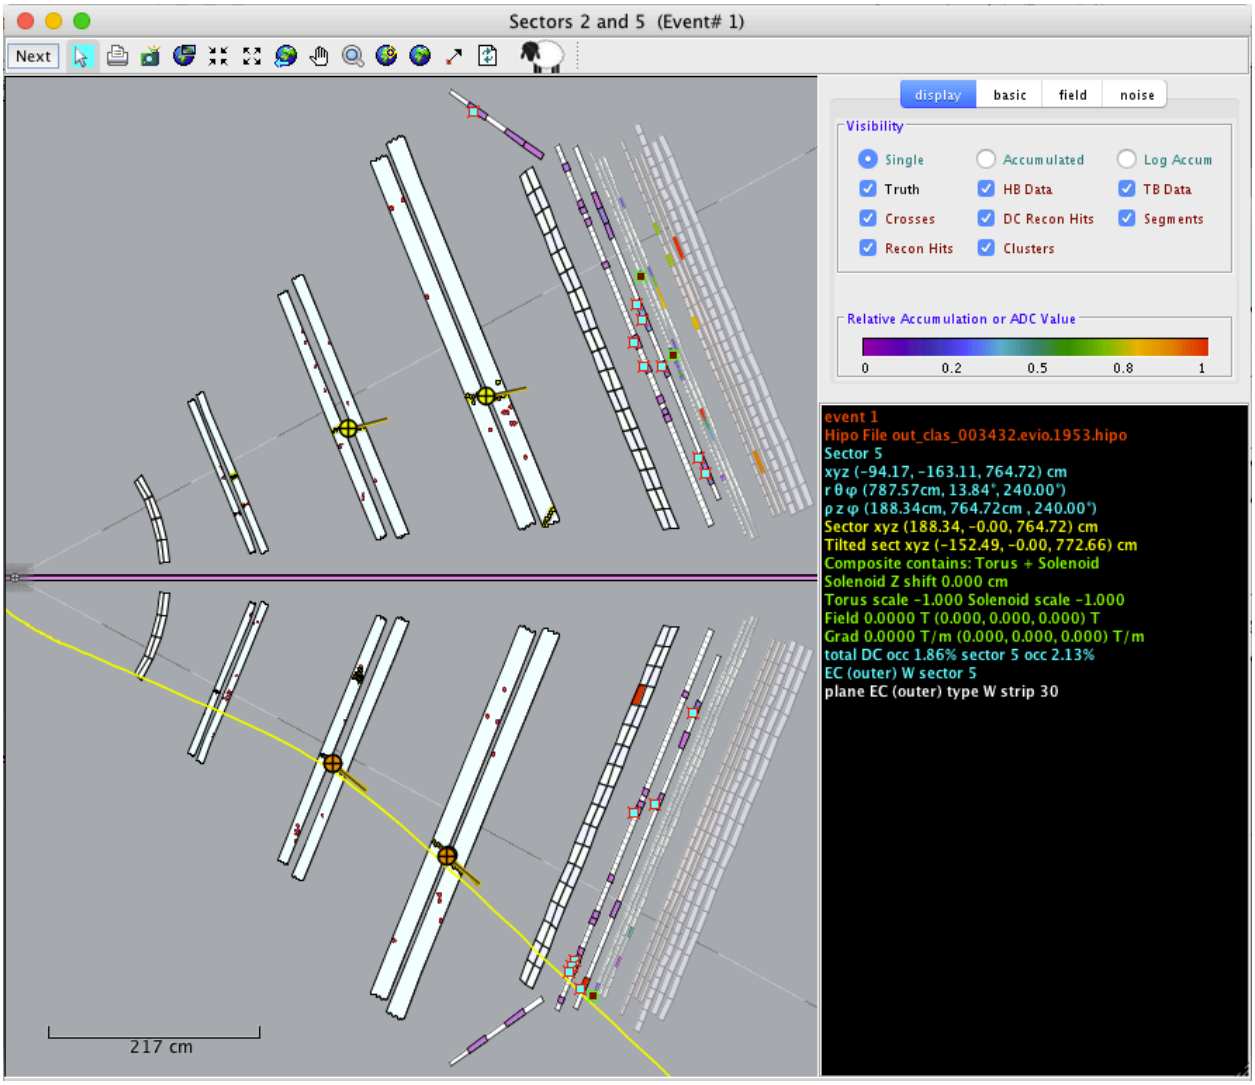
Introduction

ced is a diagnostic graphical application for displaying CLAS events.

The primary element of ced is the view. A view is a graphical representation of CLAS in its entirety or a subset of detector packages.

ced contains multiple views of CLAS, some geometrically faithful and some not. It has both 2D and 3D views. Some views are purely informational, typically in the form of tables.

Anatomy of a View



Obtaining ced

Quick Start Guide

Basic Features

Advanced Features

Meaningless Features